

SUBJECT INDEX

Great Britain 1991-2000
Northern Ireland 2000

ATTENDANCE ALLOWANCE

Accommodation – cost not borne wholly or partly out of public or local funds and accommodation not arranged by local authority - whether accommodation provided pursuant to a Scheduled enactment

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Kenyon R(A) 2/96

Accommodation in private residential care home - cost borne wholly by resident not provided with accommodation through illness - whether accommodation which is or may be provided under a Scheduled enactment

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Steane R(A) 3/96

Accommodation in residential or nursing homes - fees initially paid by health boards or trusts but later refunded to them by claimants - whether "the cost of accommodation is borne wholly or partly out of public or local funds"

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Creighton R1/00(AA)

Child - surviving for 18 months after date of claim – whether "terminally ill" R(A) 1/94

Disablement - anti-social behaviour arising from a personality disorder - whether claimant "severely disabled physically or mentally" R(A) 2/92

Disablement - claimant's bizarre conduct "behavioural in origin" - whether claimant suffering from mental disablement

Re H (a minor) R(A) 1/98

Renal dialysis - child having continuous cycle peritoneal dialysis - whether requiring attention "by day" or "at night" R(A) 1/93

See: Attention in connection with bodily functions

Residence and presence conditions

Supervision and watching over

ATTENTION IN CONNECTION WITH BODILY FUNCTIONS

Blind person requiring guidance - whether "attention ... in connection with his bodily functions"

Mallinson v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(A) 3/94

Child suffering from diabetes melitis requiring regime of care - whether regime to be considered as a whole notwithstanding that some elements do not involve close personal service R(DLA) 1/98

Need for extra domestic laundry as a result of disability – whether amounting to attention in connection with bodily functions

Cockburn v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(A) 2/98

Profoundly deaf claimant - whether assistance or attention to enable claimant to live a normal life was reasonably required

Secretary of State for Social Security v. Fairey R(A) 2/98

Skin complaint – whether additional laundry relevant – whether complex preparation and cooking of food relevant R(A) 1/91

SUBJECT INDEX

Whether attention was required in connection with the bodily function of urinating and in particular, following completion of that function
Stewart v. Advocate General for Scotland R(DLA) 2/00

CAPITAL

Award by Criminal Injuries Compensation Board calculated by reference to financial loss - whether "a payment made in consequence of any personal injury" R(IS) 15/96

Charge on property – whether giving rise to a reversionary interest R(IS) 4/96

Claimant attempting to sell farmland – whether taking reasonable steps to dispose of "premises" R(IS) 4/97

Claimant granting power of attorney – effect of attorney using claimant's money R(IS) 17/98

Disregard of premises where the claimant is taking reasonable steps to dispose of them - burden of proving that capital shall no longer be disregarded R(IS) 20/93

Earnings deposited in current account - whether income has become capital R(IS) 3/93

Farm - whether farmland part of "premises" occupied by the claimant's husband R(IS) 3/96

Freehold interest in property subject to a lease or tenancy - whether a "reversionary interest"
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Palfrey R(IS) 26/95

Gift of mortgaged property by claimant subject to a condition subsequent that was not fulfilled - whether claimant still possessing capital in excess of £6,000 limit
Ellis v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 5/98

House occupied by a tenant - whether value of the house to be disregarded as being an asset of a "business" R(FC) 2/92

House occupied by estranged wife – whether to be disregarded as "reversionary interest" R(IS) 1/97

Investment bond - whether to be disregarded as the "surrender value of a policy of life insurance" R(IS) 7/98

Jointly owned asset - whether claimant is to be treated as possessing an equal share
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Palfrey R(IS) 26/95

Land certificate of property deposited as security against a loan - whether an incumbrance R(IS) 21/93

Monies held in a building society - whether an actual resource R(IS) 15/96

Notional capital - deprivation of capital before income support was introduced - whether deprivation capable of being "for the purposes of securing entitlement to income support" R(IS) 14/93

Notional capital - deprivation of capital - whether account to be taken of notional diminishment R(IS) 1/91

Notional capital - deprivation of capital - whether claimant can intend to obtain benefit if unaware of the capital limit - whether claimant can intend to obtain benefit if repaying debts R(SB) 12/91

Notional capital - deprivation of capital - whether intention to obtain benefit is shown where that is not the predominant motive but is a significant operative purpose R(SB) 9/91

SUBJECT INDEX

- Notional capital - deprivation of capital - whether tribunal obliged to explain that account would be taken of notional diminishment R(IS) 9/92
- Payment for surrender of statutory tenancy - whether to be disregarded as being a "sum directly attributable to the proceeds of sale of any premises" R(IS) 6/95
- Person owning 99% of shares in company in which she undertook activities - valuation of capital - whether capital to be disregarded R(IS) 13/93
- Savings of the claimant and her husband held in an account in the claimant's sole name - whether claimant to be treated as beneficially entitled to the whole sum by virtue of a presumption of advancement R(IS) 2/93
- Separation agreement between claimant and wife – whether funds received by the claimant from a severance payment and held by him to implement the financial provisions of the separation agreement constituted capital of the claimant for the purposes of Scots law R(IS) 10/99
- Shares in a company - whether claimant's position "analogous to that of ... partner in the business" - whether minority holding of shares subject to pre-emptive rights has a value R(IS) 8/92
- Shares registered in the name of a child - whether having no value R(IS) 13/95
- Shares - whether valuation in accordance with prices quoted in newspapers permissible R(IS) 18/95
- Sleeping partner in family business - whether a "self-employed earner" such that business assets fell to be disregarded
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Knight R(IS) 14/98

CHILD BENEFIT

- Child in care - child placed with grandparent - whether child "boarded-out" R(F) 1/91
- Child in care - child placed with grandparent - whether child "boarded out" R(F) 1/96
- Child in care - no care order but accommodation provided by local authority – whether "in the care of a local authority"
McLavey v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(F) 1/97
- Full-time education - child following a correspondence course - whether receiving education "by attendance at" a recognised educational establishment R(F) 2/95
- Full-time education - child receiving individual tuition - whether study "supervised" R(F) 1/93
- Persons subject to immigration control - transitional provision - whether child benefit "is being paid" R(F) 1/99
- Rate of payment - twins – whether higher rate payable in respect of only the "elder" child R(F) 2/96
- Second child - whether separate claim required for each child R(F) 3/96

See: Residence and presence conditions

SUBJECT INDEX

CHILD SUPPORT

Application for maintenance – parent with care’s claim for income support unsuccessful - whether application for maintenance under section 6 of the Child Support Act 1991 effective
R(CS) 10/98

Application for maintenance – phasing in provisions - whether a qualifying child can be a party to a “maintenance agreement”
R(CS) 7/98

Application for maintenance - undertaking in preamble of court order to make maintenance payments to children – whether a ‘maintenance order’ is in force
R(CS) /99

Application for maintenance – validity of authorisation by parent with care of the Secretary of State under section 6 of the Child Support Act 1991 to take action – meaning of benefit being “paid” in section 6 of and paragraph 5(4) of Schedule 1 to the Act
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Harmon
R(CS) 4/99

Application for maintenance – whether an extract copy of a minute of agreement registered in the Books of Council and Session constituted a court order under Scots law
R(CS) 3/99

Child support scheme – whether compatible with Article 119 of the EC Treaty - whether regulations ultra vires
R(CS) 2/95

Child support scheme – whether compatible with Council Directive 79/7 EEC
R(CS) 3/96

Deductions in place of child support maintenance – whether there is discretion on a review of a determination reached in error of law to uphold rather than to revise
Dollar v. Child Support Officer
R (CS) 7/99

Departure direction –transfer of property in consequence of which the amount payable by an absent parent by way of maintenance of his children was less than would otherwise have been the case (paragraph 3(1)(b) of Schedule 4B to the Child Support Act 1991 (as amended by the Child Support Act 1995)) – admissible evidence and relevant considerations in determining the causation question
R(CS) 4/00

Estoppel - agreement with liable relatives officer to pay maintenance for three years - whether assessment of child support maintenance permissible during that period
R(CS) 2/97

Housing costs – interest payments on second mortgage taken out by absent parent to buy parent with care’s share in joint home – whether payments made in respect of the “provision of a home”
R(CS) 12/98

Income - additional housing costs allowance and repayments of advance of salary - whether to be deducted from income
R(CS) 6/98

Interim maintenance assessment - information to be provided on maintenance enquiry form - whether to be disclosed to person with care
Huxley v. Child Support Officer
R(CS) 1/00

Interim maintenance assessment - no notice given - whether interim assessment may be made
R(CS) 8/98

Jurisdiction - civil servant posted abroad - whether habitually resident in the United Kingdom
R(CS) 5/96

Jurisdiction - Secretary of State requiring the person with care to authorise him to recover child support maintenance - whether obligation to consult absent parent
R(CS) 1/98

Maintenance assessment – absent parent’s council tax liability – whether an eligible housing

SUBJECT INDEX

- cost in the calculation of exempt income R(CS) 11/98
- Maintenance assessment – absent parent’s payments towards parent with care’s mortgage and children’s pocket money – whether to be taken into account R(CS) 9/98
- Maintenance assessment – absent parent’s police officer’s rent allowance – whether to be included as earnings or excluded as expenses R(CS) 10/98
- Maintenance assessment – calculation of net income - whether contributions under a retirement annuity contract deductible as an expense – whether use of capital to make lump sum pension scheme contributions capable of constituting deprivation – whether the rule in CAO v. Hogg can be applied to income from rented property R(CS) 3/00
- Maintenance assessment – calculation of protected or disposable income – whether payments of school fees in respect of children of a previous marriage being made pursuant to an undertaking to a court can constitute “maintenance under a maintenance order” R(CS) 10/00
- Maintenance assessment - children at boarding school - whether father or mother providing day to day care R(CS) 8/98
- Maintenance assessment - earnings – whether housing allowance paid to police officer to be treated as payment of expenses wholly exclusively and necessarily incurred in the performance of the duties of the employment R(CS) 2/99
- Maintenance assessment - effective date - whether maintenance enquiry form sent to the absent parent when properly addressed, pre-paid and posted R(CS) 1/99
- Maintenance assessment – endowment mortgage - whether property and contents insurance premiums are "housing costs" R(CS) 3/96
- Maintenance assessment - inclusion of an amount in respect of the person with care - whether lawful
Huxley v. Child Support Officer R(CS) 1/00
- Maintenance assessment – income – whether occupational pension payable as a result of disability following injury sustained at work should be disregarded as income
Wakefield v. Secretary of State for Social Security R(CS) 2/00
- Maintenance assessment - maintenance enquiry form not completed - whether maintenance assessment may be made R(CS) 8/98
- Maintenance assessment – parent serving in the Armed Forces - whether married quarters his "principal home" - whether "gross earnings" means earnings after deduction of expenses R(CS) 2/96
- Maintenance assessment - qualifying children – special case of person caring for children of more than one absent parent – whether same definition of ‘qualifying children’ applies
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Maddocks R(CS) 5/00
- Maintenance assessment - qualifying transfer - meaning of “property” - whether an allowance should be made for the transfer of a part beneficial interest in property
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Henderson R(CS) 5/99
- Maintenance assessment - qualifying transfer - whether transfer “made expressly for the purpose only of compensating the parent with care for the loss of any right to apply for or receive periodical payments or a capital sum in respect of herself” R(CS) 9/99
- Maintenance assessment - section 18 review of section 19 review decision - whether "effective date" that of the section 19 review R(CS) 1/97

SUBJECT INDEX

Maintenance assessment – whether a child support officer can refuse to make an assessment against the wishes of the parent with care - whether a child support officer is under a duty to make an assessment with inadequate financial information R(CS) 2/98

Maintenance assessment – whether assessment terminates when an absent parent becomes a member of the same household as the qualifying child R(CS) 8/99

Maintenance assessment – whether welfare of the child to be taken into account R(CS) 4/96

Special case - shared care - whether regulation 20 of the Child Support (Maintenance Assessments and Special Cases) Regulations 1992 is ultra vires R(CS) 14/98

Tribunal jurisdiction – paternity dispute – whether a matter for the tribunal or court R(CS) 13/98

Tribunal jurisdiction – question whether there was a court order in force - whether a question within the jurisdiction of a child support appeal tribunal R(CS) 4/96

Tribunal jurisdiction – question whether there was a written maintenance agreement in force - whether a question within the jurisdiction of a child support appeal tribunal R(CS) 1/96

Tribunal jurisdiction - question whether there was a written maintenance agreement in force - whether a question within the jurisdiction of a child support appeal tribunal R(CS) 3/97

Tribunal jurisdiction - reduced benefit direction – whether can be challenged on appeal R(CS) 15/98

Tribunal jurisdiction – successful appeal against a decision given on review under section 18 of the Child Support Act 1991 – whether change of circumstances must be taken into account in subsequent reassessment R(CS) 5/98

Tribunal practice - appellant not attending a hearing before a child support appeal tribunal - whether attendance obligatory R(CS) 1/95

Tribunal practice - both parents appealing against a decision of a child support officer - whether appeals to be heard together R(CS) 4/98

Tribunal practice - child support officer believing tribunal had erred in fact – whether tribunal entitled to give further directions R(CS) 3/98

Tribunal practice - natural justice - whether the withholding of relevant evidence from an appeal tribunal by a child support officer renders the decision of the tribunal erroneous in law R(CS) 1/99

CLAIM

Appointment - appointment to act for invalidity benefit purposes - whether effective for income support purposes R(IS) 5/91

Claimant relying on a decision of the Court of Appeal - whether tribunal bound by section 68 of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 R(S) 1/98

Claim - claim made for specific weeks - whether to be treated as a claim for an indefinite period R(IS) 8/95

Claims in the alternative - whether claim for supplementary benefit can be treated as a claim for attendance allowance
Regina v. Secretary of State for Social Security, ex parte Cullen R(A) 1/97

SUBJECT INDEX

Failure to provide evidence in support of a claim - whether an independent ground for disentitlement R(IS) 4/93

Late claim - claimant suffering from anxiety and depression - whether reasonably practicable to obtain assistance from another person to make a claim R1/00(IS)

Late claim - delay while recovering from an operation - whether "good cause" for delay R(I) 3/96

Late claim - failing to claim while looking for work - whether claimant able to show "good cause" for delay in claiming R(U) 2/92

Late claim for reduced earnings allowance made before assessment of disablement - whether claimant automatically having "good cause" for the delay
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Dickinson R(I) 3/98

Question whether claim for unemployment benefit is to be treated as a claim for sickness benefit - whether a question to be determined by the Secretary of State R(S) 3/93

COMMISSIONER

Jurisdiction – no full statement of tribunal's decision – whether jurisdiction to hear appeal R(IS) 11/99

Jurisdiction – whether Commissioner able to grant interim relief pending reference to the European Court of Justice
Regina v. Social Security Commissioner, ex parte Snares R(DLA) 4/99

Jurisdiction - whether Commissioners and tribunals can determine the validity of a regulation in order to establish whether a decision under appeal was erroneous in law
Foster v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 22/93

Jurisdiction - whether Commissioners and tribunals can determine the validity of the decision of a prior tribunal in order to establish whether there is jurisdiction to entertain an appeal R(I) 7/94

Practice - decision of medical board invalid for lack of signature - whether Commissioner obliged to refer the case to another tribunal R(I) 3/92

Practice - special reasons for admitting late application for leave to appeal - whether clear error of tribunal relevant R(I) 5/91

COMPENSATION RECOVERY

Benefits in payment prior to accident suffered by claimant - whether relevant that same amount of benefit would have been paid if accident had not occurred – whether relevant that benefit would have been paid on different basis if accident had not occurred - whether recovery limited to element of income support personal to claimant
Hassall v. Secretary of State for Social Security R(CR) 1/95

Causation - disabled claimant capable of work but paid benefit on the basis that she was not capable of work - whether benefit paid "in consequence of" the relevant accident R(CR) 1/96

COMPUTATION OF EARNINGS

Accounting period of self-employed earner - whether actual year basis or preceding year basis to be used R(P) 2/92

School ancillary worker claiming unemployment benefit during school holiday - whether

SUBJECT INDEX

term-time earnings to be taken into account R(U) 2/96

See: Income

CONTRIBUTION CONDITIONS

Whether adjudicating authorities or Secretary of State had jurisdiction to determine the "relevant past year" for the purpose of establishing if the contribution conditions have been satisfied

Secretary of State for Social Security v. Scully R(S) 5/93

DISABILITY LIVING ALLOWANCE

Care component - haemophiliac - whether "cannot prepare a cooked main meal for himself" R(DLA) 1/97

Care component - inability to prepare a cooked main meal - whether an objective test of an ability to prepare a labour intensive main daily meal R(DLA) 2/95

Child - terminally ill - whether it is necessary that she has requirements substantially in excess of the normal requirements of persons of her age R(DLA) 1/99

Mobility component - "blind" and "deaf" - whether assessment to be made by reference to criteria for disablement benefit R(DLA) 3/95

Mobility component – claimant suffering from Alzheimer's disease – whether "severely mentally impaired" R(DLA) 2/96

Mobility component - schizophrenic - whether suffering from state of arrested development of the brain - whether suffering from severe impairment of intelligence R(DLA) 3/98

Mobility component - whether claimant "severely mentally impaired" – whether I. Q. test result determinative

M (a child) v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(DLA) 1/00

See: Attention in connection with bodily functions

Residence and presence conditions

Virtual inability to walk

DISABLEMENT BENEFIT

Assessment of disablement - aggregation - whether the percentage disablement in respect of which a gratuity is paid should be deducted from a subsequent aggregated assessment, and if so whether such a deduction should be made in respect of a period more than seven years after the beginning of the period covered by the gratuity R(I) 3/00

Assessment of disablement – congenital disablement as "other effective cause" - whether interaction of disabilities to be taken into account R(I) 1/95

Assessment of disablement - disablement arising out of three industrial accidents - whether interaction of disabilities to be taken into account R(I) 3/91

Assessment of disablement - whether disabilities arising subsequent to an accident can be included in the assessment of disablement R(I) 4/94

Special hardship allowance – assessment of 15% from 1.4.85 - whether disablement pension payable before 1.10.86 R(I) 3/96

Special hardship allowance - claim made after repeal of section 60 of the Social Security Act 1975 - whether claimant had an "acquired" or "accrued" right that survived the repeal

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Maguire R(I) 3/99

DISCRIMINATION ON GROUNDS OF SEX

Abatement of unemployment benefit of claimants aged 60 or over on account of occupational pension - whether discrimination contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC R(U) 3/92

Calculation of earnings – absence from family credit scheme in 1989 of a provision for deduction of child minding costs from earnings – whether family credit within the scope of Council Directive 76/207/EEC and whether discriminatory on grounds of sex
Meyers v. Adjudication Officer R(FC) 2/98

Increase of retirement pension for dependent husband - whether discrimination contrary to Council Directive 79/7 EEC R(P) 2/96
Bramhill v. Chief Adjudication Officer

Income support - child-minding expenses not deductible from earnings – whether income support within the scope of Council Directive 79/7/EEC of Council Directive 76/207/EEC
Cresswell v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 10/91

Invalid care allowance overlapping with claimant's husband's increase of invalidity benefit - whether discrimination contrary to Council Directive 79/7 EEC
Jones v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(G) 2/91

Invalidity benefit - whether unequal age conditions linked to different pension ages for men and women contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Graham R(S) 2/95

Non-contributory benefits - whether unequal age conditions linked to different pension ages for men and women contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Thomas R(G) 2/94

Reduced earnings allowance – whether unequal age conditions linked to different pension ages for men and women contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC
Hepple v. Adjudication Officer R(I) 2/00

Remarried divorcee not entitled to rely on former husband's contributions - whether discrimination contrary to Council Directive 79/7 EEC R(P) 1/96

Severe disablement allowance – whether transitional provisions from non-contributory invalidity benefit were contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC and discriminatory - whether restrictions on backdating a claim were contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC and discriminatory
Johnson v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(S) 1/95

Supplementary benefit - aggregation of married couple's resources – whether indirect discrimination contrary to Council Directive 79/7/EEC
Blaik v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(SB) 6/91

Supplementary benefit - no deduction for child-minding expenses - whether supplementary benefit within the scope of Council Directives 76/207/EEC and 79/7/EEC R(SB) 8/91

Woman not entitled to de-retire when aged over 65 in order to gain entitlement to invalidity pension and the higher pensioner premium of income support - whether discrimination contrary to Council Directive 79/7 EEC R(P) 1/95

SUBJECT INDEX

ESTOPPEL

Estoppel - whether available against a Department of the Crown performing statutory obligations
Davies v. Social Security Commissioner R(SB) 4/91

EVIDENCE

Computer print-out - whether requiring interpretation R(IS) 2/96

Documents - routine destruction of departmental documents - whether adverse presumption to be drawn as to their contents R(IS) 11/92

Examining medical practitioner – whether evidence of an examining medical practitioner should normally prevail over a claimant's evidence R(DLA) 3/99

Hearsay evidence - whether tribunal entitled to refuse to listen to hearsay evidence because it could not be tested by cross-examination R(IS) 5/93

See: Incapacity for work

FAMILY CREDIT

Person from abroad - transitional protection - whether continuing after the expiry of the award current on the coming into force of the Social Security (Persons from Abroad) Miscellaneous Amendments Regulations 1996 R(IS) 15/99

See: Capital

Discrimination on grounds of sex

Income

Remunerative work

Residence and presence conditions

FORFEITURE

Manslaughter – whether there is power to give total relief against forfeiture – principles affecting exercise of discretion R(G) 1/98

Manslaughter - whether there must be some relief against forfeiture R(G) 1/91

FUNERAL PAYMENT

Arrears of attendance allowance due to the deceased paid to the claimant – whether “assets of the deceased” R(IS) 12/93

Bill rendered in the name of the claimant's parents - whether the claimant had accepted responsibility for the expenses R(IS) 6/98

Capital in deceased's building society account dissipated by claimant – whether "available to [the claimant] (on application or otherwise)" R(IS) 14/91

Claimant taking over responsibility for payment of funeral expenses from another – whether the "responsible member" R(IS) 9/93

Cost of transport - whether claimant's home where he lived before his death or where he originally came from R(IS) 11/91

Essential expenses - whether to be calculated by considering the average cost of a funeral R(IS) 14/92

Estranged son of deceased – whether reasonable to accept responsibility having regard to the nature and extent of contact with the deceased R(IS) 3/98

Former resident of Birmingham buried in Solihull – whether additional cost of burial in Solihull “necessary” R(IS) 18/98

Statutory condition that funeral take place in the United Kingdom – whether indirect discrimination on grounds of nationality contrary to Article 7(2) of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1612/68

O'Flynn v. Adjudication Officer R(IS) 4/98

INCAPACITY FOR WORK

All work test - mental disabilities - whether medical evidence of mental illness required R(IB) 2/98

All work test – person able to walk upstairs normally but able to walk down stairs only one step at a time – whether “can only walk up and down one step at a time” R(IB) 1/99

All work test - recovering alcoholic with strong desire to consume alcohol before midday - whether "needs alcohol before midday" R1/00(IB)

All work test - right handed person unable to hold a pen or pencil in right hand and able only to scrawl with left hand – whether able to "use a pen or pencil" R(IB) 1/98

All work test - use of medication - whether to be taken into account in relation to "no voluntary control" of bowel or bladder R2/00(IB)

All work test – variable and intermittent conditions – whether the all work test must literally be satisfied on each day of a period of incapacity R(IB) 2/99

All work test - virtually blind claimant – whether visual defect entitles scores under more than one activity R(IB) 3/98

Claimant treated as capable of work - failure to provide information - whether in deciding at least 4 weeks have elapsed between the issue of the first and second request for information, the day of issue is to be included in the period - burden of proof on the adjudication officer to show the conditions on which regulation 7 depended were satisfied R(IB) 1/00

Evidence – whether claimant can be held to be incapable of work in the absence of Form Med. 4 R(IB) 5/98

Evidence - whether detailed job specifications are required of work it is suggested the claimant could perform R(S) 4/94

Pregnant woman advised not to work due to risk of infection - whether "under medical care in respect of a disease or disablement" so as to be deemed to be incapable of work R(S) 4/93

INCOME

Armed Forces service invaliding pension - whether “war disablement pension” R(IS) 3/99

Calculation of earnings of self-employed earner - whether normal accounting practice to be applied in relation to opening and closing stock R(FC) 1/96

Calculation of earnings of self-employed earner - whether stock consumed in trading period deductible as an expense R1/00(FC)

Calculation of earnings – whether payment during assessment period for holiday to be taken outside that period to be included R(FC) 1/98

SUBJECT INDEX

- Capital receipts of self-employed earner - whether to be included in the "gross receipts of employment" R(FC) 1/98
- Claimant a sub-postmistress and her husband a shopkeeper - whether her husband's losses could be offset against her earnings R(FC) 1/93
- Earnings of a supply teacher employed on a day to day basis - whether monthly payments were made in respect of the whole month or only the days worked R(IS) 10/95
- Earnings of employed earner - whether local councillor's expenses deductible R(IS) 6/92
- Earnings of self-employed earner - whether motoring expenses and telephone expenses for both business and personal use may be apportioned R(IS) 13/91
- Earnings of self-employed earner - whether motoring expenses and telephone expenses for both business and personal use may be apportioned - whether bad debts deductible - whether capital drawings relevant R(FC) 1/91
- Employer's deduction from earnings in respect of private usage of a car - whether to be included in earnings and whether allowable as expense R(IS) 16/93
- Guarantee payment - whether "earnings" R(IS) 9/95
- Notional earnings - claimant caring for her disabled son - whether the claimant "performs ... a service"
Sharrock v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(SB) 3/92
- Notional earnings - whether claimant working in a shop for no pay was a "volunteer"
R(IS) 12/92
- Notional income - mortgage repayments in respect of claimant's home paid by her husband - whether "payment of income made to a third party" R(FC) 4/98
- Notional income - payments in kind - whether to be taken into account when determining notional earnings R(IS) 2/98
- Payment in lieu of concessionary coal - whether "voluntary" R(IS) 4/94
- Person provided with free living accommodation by reason of his employment - whether community charge may be deducted from the £12 notional weekly earnings R(FC) 1/94
- Regulation requiring final payment of sick pay on termination of employment to be taken into account during period of claim for income support - whether ultra vires or irrational
Owen v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 8/99
- Student grant repayable after abandonment of course - whether still to be taken into account as "income"
Leeves v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 5/99

See: Discrimination on grounds of sex

INCOME SUPPORT

- Absence from Great Britain - claimant on work experience in Belgium and France and receiving maintenance from the European Social Fund - whether in receipt of a training allowance and so not required to be available for work R(IS) 10/98

- Applicable amount - child maintained by local authority at residential educational establishment - whether “resident” and to be treated as possessing income
Barton v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 11/96
- Applicable amount - claimant in receipt of attendance allowance in respect of her disabled daughter - whether “in receipt of attendance allowance” for the purposes of severe disability premium
Rider v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 10/94
- Applicable amount - claimant living in a motor car - whether "without accommodation"
R(IS) 23/98
- Applicable amount - claimant living in nursing home owned and run by her daughter - whether accommodation and meals provided by a close relative
R(IS) 2/91
- Applicable amount - claimant living in unregistered satellite home of registered residential care home - whether living in a "residential care home"
R(IS) 2/92
- Applicable amount - claimant's partner remanded on bail with a condition of residence in a bail hostel - whether “detained in custody” and whether intending to return to the dwelling occupied as the home
R(IS) 17/93
- Applicable amount - disability premium - whether retrospective medical statements may be accepted
R(IS) 8/93
- Applicable amount - hospital in-patient - claimant absent from hospital during evenings and week-ends - whether circumstances existing at the beginning of a day are to be treated as continuing throughout the day
R(IS) 8/96
- Applicable amount - hospital in-patients - whether persons receiving treatment in a private nursing home pursuant to arrangements by the health authority are “patients” in a “hospital or similar institution”
R(IS) 7/92
- Applicable amount - hospital in-patients - whether persons receiving treatment in a private nursing home pursuant to arrangements by the health authority are “patients” in a “hospital or similar institution”
Chief Adjudication Officer v. White R(IS) 18/94
- Applicable amount - local authority accommodation leased to voluntary organisations - whether claimants are “persons in residential accommodation” or are living in “residential care homes”
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Quinn R(IS) 13/96
- Applicable amount - married couple living in residential care - whether “members of the same household”
R(IS) 1/99
- Applicable amount - person from abroad – discrimination on ground of nationality - whether Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 applies to a case that is wholly internal to a Member State
Krasniqi v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 15/99
- Applicable amount - person from abroad – European Economic Area nationals – whether Home Office letter constituted requirement to leave for the purposes of regulation 21(3)(h) of the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987
Remilien v. Secretary of State for Social Security R(IS) 13/98
- Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence - British citizen who had worked in France returning to seek work in United Kingdom - whether a condition of habitual residence requiring completion of an appreciable period of residence is compatible with Article 10a of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71
Swaddling v. Adjudication Officer R(IS) 6/99

SUBJECT INDEX

Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence - British national temporarily absent in Burma - whether ceasing to be habitually resident in the United Kingdom

R(IS) 6/96

Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence – European Community nationals -national of Eire who worked in France until made unemployed but is seeking employment in the United Kingdom - whether exempt from the habitual residence test

R(IS) 3/97

Applicable amount - person from abroad – habitual residence- European Union national – French national who worked as an au pair in the United Kingdom - whether a worker for the purpose of Regulation 1612/68 – whether retained worker status on ceasing employment

R(IS) 12/98

Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence – European Union nationals – self-employed person – when a right to reside pursuant to Council Directive 73/148/EEC arises

R(IS) 6/00

Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence – European Union nationals - whether Council Directive 68/360/EEC restricted worker's right of residence to period of employment

R(IS) 9/99

Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence - whether “habitual residence” can commence from the date of arrival in the United Kingdom

Nessa v. Chief Adjudication Officer

R(IS) 2/00

Applicable amount - person from abroad - habitual residence - whether length of residence is a relevant factor in the concept of residence

R(IS) 3/00

Applicable amount - person from abroad - transitional protection - whether entitled to benefit "before the coming into force of" the Social Security (Persons from Abroad) Miscellaneous Amendments Regulations 1996

Krasniqi v. Chief Adjudication Officer

R(IS) 15/99

Applicable amount - prisoner - claimant held in custody until discontinuance of criminal proceedings - whether "detained ... pending trial"

R(IS) 1/94

Applicable amount - prisoner on home leave - whether “detained in custody”

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Carr

R(IS) 20/95

Applicable amount - severe disability premium - meaning of the term “resides with” in the definition of “non dependant” - meaning of the term “jointly occupies” in the exception from the definition

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Bate

R(IS) 12/96

Applicable amount - severe disability premium – rent paid to parents – whether claimant had no non-dependants living with her - whether rent paid on a “commercial basis”

R(IS) 11/98

Applicable amount - boarder - protected sum - whether claimant a "protected person"

R(IS) 1/92

Applicable amount - severe disability premium - whether claimants had no “non-dependants” living with them - applicability of Scots Law doctrines of recompense and negotiorum gestio - meaning of “commercial basis”

R(IS) 17/94

Applicable amount - severe disability premium - whether paragraph 13(2)(a)(ii) and (iii) of Schedule 2 to the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 validly made under section 22(4) of the Social Security Act 1996

Foster v. Chief Adjudication Officer

R(IS) 22/93

- Applicable amount – severely mentally handicapped claimant resident in a nursing home - whether an in-patient
Botchett v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 10/96
- Applicable amount - young person receiving relevant education - whether Somali national of necessity having to live away from his parents - whether parents "prohibited from entering Great Britain"
R(IS) 9/94
- Availability for employment - question not immediately determinable – whether decision made on an assumption must make that explicit
R(IS) 6/91
- Deduction for arrears of community charge - application by levying authority possibly not stating the total amount of arrears specified in the summary warrant or decree - whether adjudication officer entitled to question the validity of the application
Murdoch v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 3/92
- Deduction for direct payment of rent to landlord - claimant contending that there were no arrears - whether tribunal required to determine whether there were arrears
R(IS) 14/95
- Deduction for outstanding community charge – whether tribunal should require evidence of liability
R(IS) 1/98
- Housing costs - abandoned claimant's award of income support terminated on account of starting work - whether subsequent claim "because of being abandoned"
R2/00(IS)
- Housing costs - claimant buying council house before claiming income support - whether housing costs liable to be restricted
R(IS) 13/94
- Housing costs – claimant jointly and severally liable with son for loan repayment – son not paying his share – whether claimant entitled to have interest on full amount of loan included in her housing costs
R(IS) 4/00
- Housing costs - claimant living in an unnecessarily expensive area and able to buy suitable alternative accommodation without a mortgage - whether housing costs nil
R(IS) 9/91
- Housing costs - claimant living in an unnecessarily expensive area - whether claimant was in a position to meet his financial commitments when they were entered into
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Julien R(IS) 13/92
- Housing costs - claimant moving from Dorset to Hertfordshire - whether adjudication officer entitled to regard housing costs in Hertfordshire as excessive by reference to prices in Dorset
R(IS) 12/91
- Housing costs - claimant's daughter's estate liable for mortgage payments – whether estate "a person liable to meet those costs [but] not doing so"
R(IS) 12/94
- Housing costs - freeholder's bill for emptying a cess pit - whether a service charge
R(IS) 4/91
- Housing costs - home larger than required by claimant and his family – whether inability to sell the home and a consequent inability to buy an alternative home is relevant to the “availability” of suitable alternative accommodation
R(IS) 10/93
- Housing costs - house insurance - whether a service charge
R(IS) 19/93
- Housing costs - husband committed to prison - whether wife "being abandoned"
R(IS) 12/99

SUBJECT INDEX

- Housing costs - interest on loan taken out in order to improve a former home – whether to be met R(IS) 5/96
- Housing costs - interest on mortgage for repairs and improvements not falling within paragraph 8 of Schedule 3 to the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 - whether to be met through income support R(IS) 3/94
- Housing costs - interest on second mortgage taken out to enable claimant to repay interest free loans applied to purchase his home - whether "eligible interest" R(IS) 11/95
- Housing costs - interest payments on a further charge required as a condition of a mortgage to cover the purchase price - whether “eligible interest”
Guest v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 2/99
- Housing costs – interest payments on overdraft facility arranged to provide for costs of home repairs – whether interest on loan for repairs and improvements to the dwelling occupied as the home R(IS) 22/98
- Housing costs - joint mortgage - whether claimant entitled to housing costs in relation to the proportion of expenditure for which she was liable but not in fact paying R(IS) 19/95
- Housing costs - loan applied to build an extension - whether extension an "improvement" R(IS) 3/95
- Housing costs - loan applied to secure removal of Class F land charge – whether applied for the purpose of "acquiring an interest" in the home R(IS) 4/95
- Housing costs - loan obtained in order to buy out sitting tenants - whether for the purpose of “acquiring an interest in the dwelling occupied as the home” R(IS) 24/95
- Housing costs - loan taken out to cover materials and labour for building the home - whether for the purpose of "acquiring an interest in the dwelling" R(IS) 11/94
- Housing costs - loan taken out upon claimant transferring to his partner his interest in their home - whether applied for the purpose of "acquiring an interest" in the home R(IS) 1/95
- Housing costs – loan to provide cupboards and refrigerator – whether in respect of "repairs and improvements" by way of "provision of facilities for preparing and cooking food" R(IS) 16/98
- Housing costs - loan used to purchase bankrupt partner's former share of property from trustee in bankruptcy - whether for the purpose of "acquiring an interest in the dwelling" R(IS) 6/94
- Housing costs - mortgage taken out two years after repayment of earlier loan - whether claimant entitled to include in her applicable amount the interest on her new mortgage R(IS) 20/98
- Housing costs - mortgage used to purchase accommodation previously rented - restriction of eligible interest R(IS) 8/94
- Housing costs - partner leaving matrimonial home but paying maintenance – whether claimant "abandoned" R2/00(IS)
- Housing costs - recovery of land certificate on repayment of a debt - whether “acquiring an interest in the dwelling” R(IS) 18/93
- Housing costs - restriction of housing costs - whether restriction may be reviewed when interest rates decrease R(IS) 15/93

SUBJECT INDEX

- Housing costs - second claim by claimant more than 16 weeks after end of previous award - whether entitled to 100 per cent. of eligible interest R(IS) 2/94
- Housing costs - tenant purchasing the freehold reversion of his home - whether "acquiring an interest in the dwelling" R(IS) 7/93
- Housing costs - tenant's bill for roof repairs to a block of flats - whether a service charge R(IS) 3/91
- Housing costs - tenant's obligation to reimburse landlord the cost of premiums for a comprehensive household insurance policy - whether a service charge R(IS) 4/92
- Student – Bar vocational course – whether a “full-time course” R(IS) 5/97
- Student - claimant on modular course - whether "attending a full-time course"
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Webber R(IS) 15/98
- Student – claimant unemployed during placement period within a full-time sandwich course – whether attending a “full-time course of study”
Driver v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 6/97
- Student - claim made between taking degree and beginning professional training - whether "attending a full-time course of study" R(IS) 1/96
- Student - income - whether loan from a foreign government is a "grant" R(IS) 16/95
- Student - income - whether single parent's allowance in mandatory grant is to be apportioned over 52 weeks R(IS) 15/95
- Student - income - whether travel expenses to be disregarded R(IS) 7/95
- Student - intercalated year - whether attending a full-time course of study
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Clarke R(IS) 25/95
- Student - Project 2000 student nurse absent from course through sickness – whether a student and not entitled to benefit R(IS) 19/98
- Student - whether course a “full-time” course
O'Connor v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 7/99
- Student – whether course a “full-time” course R(IS) 1/00
- Transitional addition – claimant's sentence of imprisonment quashed on appeal - whether transitional addition to be restored on his release from prison R(IS) 2/95
- Transitional addition - restoration of applicable amount to its previous level following return of child from temporary local authority care - whether an “increase” in the applicable amount
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Dommett R(IS) 6/93
- Urgent case – asylum seeker – whether asylum claimed “on arrival” R(IS) 14/99
- Urgent case – reduced rate paid to refugees before asylum claim decided - whether contrary to the 1951 Geneva Convention and Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1408/71 R(IS) 9/98

See: Capital
Discrimination on grounds of sex
Income
Remunerative work
Residence and presence conditions

SUBJECT INDEX

INCREASE FOR DEPENDENT WIFE

Claimant transferring from invalidity pension to retirement pension - whether remaining entitled to transitional protection in respect of wife's earnings R(P) 4/93

Wife in receipt of occupational pension - whether "earnings"
Cottingham v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(P) 1/93

Wife involved in one-day strikes - whether transitional protection lost R(S) 6/94

Wife receiving retirement pension - whether the amount of graduated retirement benefit to be deducted from the increase of invalidity benefit R(S) 5/94

See: Residence and presence conditions

Validity of marriage

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT

Abnormally sensitive reaction to passive smoking - whether accident rather than process R(I) 6/91

Accident while travelling to work on detached duty - whether accident in the course of employment R(I) 1/91

Assault on Benefits Agency employee while at home on sick leave - whether accident arose in the course of employment
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Rhodes R(I) 1/99

Claimant injured while attending a site meeting in connection with litigation against her employer - whether "in the course of [her] employment" R(I) 1/93

Fireman developed post-traumatic stress disorder following attendance at fatal accidents over several years - whether there had been an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Faulds R(I) 1/00

Injury sustained playing football - whether injury suffered in course of employment
Faulkner v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(I) 8/94

INDUSTRIAL DISEASE

Date of onset - whether date of onset a matter for determination by an adjudicating medical authority R(I) 5/95

Diagnosis question - jurisdiction of medical appeal tribunal - whether belief that claimant was not working in a prescribed occupation relevant to the diagnosis question R(I) 4/91

Diagnosis question - whether medical adjudicating authorities could consider alternative diagnosis although not specifically claimed R(I) 6/94

Prescribed disease A4 (cramp of the hand or forearm due to repetitive movements) - repetitive movements of the hand while working on a laboratory bench – whether "other repetitive movements of the fingers, hand or arm" R(I) 3/97

Prescribed disease A6 (beat knee) – friction and pressure applied to the claimant's foot by use of a break pedal - whether leading to "friction or pressure at or about the knee" R(I) 5/98

Prescribed disease A8 (tenosynovitis) - new "claim" after end of period of assessment - whether requiring a review of the assessment R(I) 1/98

SUBJECT INDEX

- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - amendment from 16.10.89 to regulations regarding assessment of disablement - whether amendment applying to assessment beginning before 16.10.89 R(I) 2/98
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - claimant working with machine used for cutting newsprint - whether newsprint is "wood" R(I) 2/92
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - claim made more than 5 years after claimant ceased to be engaged in a prescribed occupation - whether paragraph 4(3) of Schedule 6 to the Social Security Act 1990 is retrospective R(I) 1/92
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - claim made more than 5 years after employment in prescribed occupation - whether time for claiming may be extended for "good cause"
Chatterton v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(I) 1/94
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - felling trees in forest area to clear way for roads - whether "forestry" R(I) 5/96
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - the use of pneumatic percussive tools on metal - whether the electrodes on spot welding machines are tools
Appleby v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(I) 5/99
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) - the use of powered grinding tools on cast metal - whether it is necessary that it be "in the metal producing industry" R(I) 3/94
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) – whether “manufacture of glass containers or hollow ware” includes manufacture of pottery hollow ware R(I) 4/99
- Prescribed disease A10 (occupational deafness) – work in engine room on land – whether “work in ships’ engine rooms” R(I) 2/97
- Prescribed disease A11 (vibration white finger) - only two digits affected - whether regulations ultra vires because disease ordinarily prescribed only where four digits are affected R(I) 2/95
- Prescribed Disease A12 (carpal tunnel syndrome) – industrial buffing machine – whether a "hand-held vibrating tool" must be portable R(I) 6/98
- Prescribed disease A12 (carpal tunnel syndrome) - industrial sewing machine - whether "hand-held vibrating tool" R(I) 3/95
- Prescribed disease A12 (carpal tunnel syndrome) - rotary scrubbing machine – whether "hand-held vibrating tool" R(I) 2/96
- Prescribed disease A12 (carpal tunnel syndrome) – steering wheel of a bus – whether a “hand-held vibrating tool” R(I) 8/98
- Prescribed disease D1 (pneumoconiosis) - diagnosis question - whether a claimant must be suffering from a specific degree of pneumoconiosis before being found to have the disease as prescribed R(I) 1/96
- Prescribed disease D1 (pneumoconiosis) – whether dust-reticulation within definition of “pneumoconiosis” R(I) 7/98
- Prescribed disease D4 (inflammation or ulceration of the mucous membrane of the upper respiratory passages or mouth produced by dust, liquid or vapour) - medical appeal tribunal deciding "diagnosis" question - whether it is relevant whether or not the condition was caused by the claimant's work R(I) 1/97

SUBJECT INDEX

Prescribed disease D6 (nasal carcinoma) – painter sanding wood – whether employed "in or about a building where wooden goods are manufactured or repaired" R(I) 4/98

Prescribed disease D12 (miner's bronchitis etc.) - disease prescribed from 13.9.93 - whether claimant suffering from disease since 1970 entitled to disablement benefit in respect of any period before 13.9.93 R(I) 4/96

INVALID CARE ALLOWANCE

Calculation of number of hours of care - whether averaging permissible R(G) 3/91

Claimant caring for two people at separate times - whether number of hours caring for each may be aggregated R(G) 3/93

Claimant receiving sick pay while absent from work due to sickness - whether "gainfully employed" R(G) 2/95

See: Discrimination on grounds of sex

INVALIDITY BENEFIT

*See: Discrimination on grounds of sex
Residence and presence conditions*

JUDICIAL PRECEDENT

Unreported Commissioner's decision departing from earlier reported decision - whether tribunal obliged to give greater weight to reported decision R(1/00)(FC)

Whether Commissioner bound by a single High Court judge exercising the supervisory jurisdiction of the High Court R(IS) 15/99

MOBILITY ALLOWANCE

*See: Residence and presence conditions
Virtual inability to walk*

PAYMENT

Alleged non-receipt of instrument of payment - whether a question for an adjudication officer R(IS) 7/91

Payment of benefit not obtained - no instrument of payment issued - whether right to payment extinguished after 12 months R(P) 3/93

Payment of benefit not obtained - prescribed time reduced under new regulation - whether claimant entitled to rely on time limit in force when the right to payment arose R(A) 2/93

Payment of benefit not obtained - prescribed time reduced under new regulation - whether claimant entitled to rely on time limit in force when the right to payment arose R(F) 1/92

RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENT

Benefit awarded on a mistaken basis continuing in payment due to failure to disclose a change of circumstances - whether failure to disclose a "material" fact R(F) 2/99

Calculation of the amount recoverable - whether deduction for an underpayment limited to the period of the overpayment - whether "the claim as presented" includes facts that could have been established by reasonable enquiry prompted by the terms of the claim R(IS) 5/92

SUBJECT INDEX

- Claimant's applicable amount including severe disability premium - whether amount of severe disability premium recoverable when arrears of invalid care allowance are paid to another person in respect of caring for the claimant R(IS) 14/94
- Claimant suffering from mental illness - whether mental state relevant to failure to disclose a material fact R(A) 1/95
- Claimant unaware of material fact - whether misrepresentation made when signing order book declaration
Franklin v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 16/96
- Decision not made following a review - whether decision valid R(SB) 7/91
- Declaration on order book - whether representation as to a material fact
Jones v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 7/94
- Limitation period - whether section 9(1) of the Limitation Act 1980 applies before an overpayment is found to be recoverable R(SB) 5/91
- Misrepresentation of amount of capital - recovery from the estate of deceased claimant R(SB) 1/96
- Overpayment due to innocent failure to disclose a material fact - whether recoverable
Page v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(SB) 2/92
- Payment made before repeal of section 119 of the Social Security Act 1975 - whether claimant entitled to rely on "due care and diligence"
Plewa v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(P) 2/95
- Payment made before repeal of section 119 of the Social Security Act 1975 - whether claimant had an "acquired" or "accrued" right that survived the repeal
Secretary of State for Social Security v. Tunncliffe R(G) 4/91
- Recovery of overpaid supplementary benefit from arrears of Belgian unemployment benefit - whether supplementary benefit to be apportioned between the claimant and his family for the purposes of Article 111(3) of Council Regulation (EEC) 574/72
Scrivner v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(SB) 1/91
- Recovery of overpaid supplementary benefit from German invalidity benefit - whether it is necessary that the German benefit have been paid by virtue of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 R(SB) 3/91
- Representation on claim form - whether qualified by declaration at the end of the form
Sharples v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 7/94
- Statement that a course was part-time - whether a misrepresentation of fact R(SB) 2/91
- Whether claim form incorrectly completed by third party and signed by mentally incapacitated claimant - misrepresentation by the claimant
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Sherriff R(IS) 14/96
- Whether it was obligatory for the adjudication officer to consider the question of a possible underpayment R(IS) 9/96
- Whether recoverable from appointee responsible for failure to disclose R(IS) 5/00

REDUCED EARNINGS ALLOWANCE

- Claimant dismissed from employment - whether he thereby "gives up regular employment"
R(I) 2/93

SUBJECT INDEX

Claimants ceasing regular employment before 10.4.89 - whether to be treated as "not having given up regular employment" R(I) 3/93

Transfer of claimants over pensionable age to retirement allowance – meaning of "gives up regular employment"

Plummer v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(I) 2/99

See: Discrimination on grounds of sex

REMUNERATIVE WORK

Claimant working more than the hours for which she was contracted to work - whether actual working hours to be taken into account R(FC) 1/92

Director of limited company in financial difficulties – whether work done "in expectation of payment" R(IS) 5/95

Freelance writer - whether work done "in expectation of payment" R(IS) 1/93

Mini-cab driver - whether waiting in office was 'remunerative work'
Kazantzis v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 13/99

Paid holiday - whether claimant "carries out activities" for the hours covered by holiday pay
R(FC) 2/91

Retail shop trading at a loss - whether attendance in shop was paid for or was in expectation of payment

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Ellis R(IS) 22/95

School ancillary worker - whether paid holiday to be taken into account when averaging hours worked R(IS) 7/96

School ancillary worker - whether school holidays to be taken into account in averaging the number of hours worked R(IS) 15/94

Share fisherman - whether engaged in work during rest periods at sea R(IS) 12/95

Short-time working one week on and one week off - whether hours to be averaged over a two week cycle R(IS) 8/95

Whether enterprise allowance constituted payment for work - whether preparatory work done in the course of setting up a business is work done in expectation of payment

Smith v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 21/95

RESIDENCE AND PRESENCE CONDITIONS

Presence condition - claimant attending a hospital in Portugal for one day - whether condition necessitating "immediate benefits" for the purposes of Article 22.1(a) of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 R(S) 2/94

Presence condition - claimant employed on ships by a UK company while living in Ireland with his wife who was employed in Ireland - whether entitled to child benefit by virtue of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1408/71 as implemented by Council Regulation (EEC) No. 574/72 R(F) 1/95

SUBJECT INDEX

- Presence condition – claimant moved to Eire with husband and children and claimed United Kingdom child benefit – whether entitled by virtue of Article 77 of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1408/71 – whether armed forces service pension including an invalidity supplement is a “pension for old age, invalidity or an accident at work” or whether entitlement to an invalidity benefit sufficient where claimant in receipt of overlapping benefit R(F) 1/98
- Presence condition - claimant in Spain for more than 8 weeks - whether Fire Brigade Medical Discharge pension a benefit within Article 77 of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 R(F) 1/94
- Presence condition - claimant's partner's earnings derived from remunerative work outside the United Kingdom - whether claimant to be treated as not being in Great Britain R(FC) 2/93
- Presence condition - claimant suffering from progressive disease living in Malta where he had no right of permanent residence - whether "temporarily absent from Great Britain" R(S) 1/93
- Presence condition - Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 and the Anglo-German Convention - whether person ordinarily resident in Germany and employed by the NAAFI in Germany is subject to United Kingdom legislation R(F) 2/99
- Presence condition - German national visiting Germany - whether application of presence condition amounts to discrimination on grounds of nationality contrary to Article 3.1 of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 R(S) 2/93
- Presence condition – long period of indefinite absence from Great Britain – whether claimant “temporarily” absent
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Balmer R(S) 1/96
- Presence condition - whether domestic legislation providing for withdrawal of income support after four weeks absence is compatible with Article 10a of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71
Perry v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 4/99
- Residence condition - absence in Canada - whether claimant able to rely on the Family Allowances and National Insurance (Canada) Order 1959 R(F) 2/92
- Residence condition - child under 6 months old - whether residence condition can be satisfied by an unborn child R(A) 1/94
- Residence condition - claimant moving permanently to the Canary Islands - whether attendance allowance exportable under article 10 of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 R(A) 5/92
- Residence condition - claimant moving to the Republic of Ireland after working in the United Kingdom - whether claimant entitled to benefit by virtue of Article 19 of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71
Twomey v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(S) 3/92
- Residence condition - claimant moving to Spain having been entitled to retirement pension by virtue of the reciprocal agreement with New Zealand - whether entitlement continuing by virtue of Article 10 of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1408/71 R(P) 3/96
- Residence condition - claimant returning to her Member State of origin having become incapable of work in another Member State where she had been employed - whether entitled to receive benefits in her Member State of origin by virtue of Article 71(1)(b)(ii) of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71
Toosey v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(S) 7/94

SUBJECT INDEX

Residence condition - claimant who was formerly self-employed moving permanently to France - whether entitled to export mobility allowance under Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71

Newton v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(M) 1/92

Residence condition - claimant in receipt of attendance allowance from July 1992 and moving to live in France in 1993 - whether remaining entitled to attendance allowance by virtue of Article 10 of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71

Partridge v. Adjudication Officer R(A) 1/99

Residence condition - claimant moving permanently to another European Union Member State - whether disability living allowance could be exported under Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71

Snares v. Adjudication Officer R(DLA) 5/99

Residence condition - claim by retired British national living in Spain - whether entitled to benefit by virtue of article 10 of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71

R(A) 2/94

Residence condition - claim for disability living allowance while ordinarily resident in Spain - whether Article 10(1) of Council Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 disapplies the residence condition

Harris v. Secretary of State for Social Security R(DLA) 2/99

Residence condition - claim for increase in respect of wife living in Morocco - effect of European Community Co-operation Agreement - whether indirect discrimination

R(S) 1/00

Residence condition - severe disablement allowance - whether residence condition prior to 6 April 1992 within the powers of the Act - whether the reciprocal agreement with Germany is applicable

R(S) 1/97

RETIREMENT PENSION

Deferred retirement - claimant in receipt of graduated retirement benefit during period of deferral - whether "days of increment"

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Pearse R(P) 2/93

See: Computation of earnings

Discrimination on grounds of sex

Residence and presence conditions

Validity of marriage

REVIEW

Death of claimant - doctrine of relation back - whether application for review made after a claimant's death is rendered competent by a later grant of letters of administration

R(A) 1/92

Doctor finding claimant capable of work - whether adjudication officer entitled to review an award of benefit

R(S) 3/94

First application for review of a medical board's decision on grounds of unforeseen aggravation rejected by a medical appeal tribunal - whether leave required for a further application for review

R(I) 4/95

Ignorance of, or mistake as to, a material fact - whether includes material facts not in existence at the time of the decision

Chief Adjudication Officer v. Combe R(IS) 8/98

Incapacity benefit – requirement to review transitional award R(IB) 3/98

SUBJECT INDEX

- Indefinite award - whether different medical opinion justifies a review R(S) 1/92
- Limitation of payment - official error - whether a purposive approach may be taken to regulation 57(2) of the Social Security (Adjudication) Regulations 1995 R(IS) 21/98
- Limitation of payment - visiting officer not asking about claimant's health - whether "mistake" or "omission" R(SB) 2/93
- Limitation of payment - whether change in the time-limits is retrospective R(SB) 4/92
- Limitation of payment - whether clear mistake of fact or law in not reviewing award when claimant required to sign quarterly R(SB) 10/91
- Limitation of payment - whether decision erroneous by reason only of something omitted to be done by an officer of the Department of Social Security R(P) 1/92
- Limitation of payment - whether decision of adjudication officer is 'found to be erroneous in law' by a Commissioner or the court concerned - whether decision of European Court of Justice on a reference is a 'relevant determination' - whether section 69 Social Security Administration Act 1992 contrary to European Community law R(S) 1/99
- Limitation of payment - whether limit to backdating if application for a review of a decision for error of law on the basis of the decision of a Court made by way of a consent order R(FC) 3/98
- Limitation of payment - whether limit to backdating if application for a review of a decision for error of law on the basis of the decision of a Court or Commissioner was made before the date of the decision of the Court or Commissioner
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Woods R(DLA) 5/98
- Limitation of payment - whether the ground for review was "that the decision is erroneous in point of law by virtue of a determination by a Commissioner" R(IS) 10/92
- Limitation of payment - whether the only decisions whose reversal brings the anti-test case rule into operation are those made consistently with a binding authority – whether the rule has effect on subsequent decisions of Commissioners or the courts
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Bate R(IS) 12/96
- New medical opinion – whether grounds for review R(IS) 2/97
- Reliance on wrong statutory provision – whether invalidates review R(IS) 2/97
- Retrospective change in the law - whether a "change of circumstances"
Chief Adjudication Officer v. McKiernon R(I) 2/94
- Review of benefit entitlement following a change in law - whether replaces the reviewed decision so as to exclude the possibility of a late appeal against that decision
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Eggleton R(IS) 23/95
- Revised decision sought from 1979 - whether tribunal entitled to revise decision from 1973 R(IS) 11/93
- Whether medical opinion of itself constitutes a change of circumstances R(S) 4/94
- Wife becoming claimant in place of husband – whether review or new claim R(SB) 1/93

SUBJECT INDEX

SEVERE DISABLEMENT ALLOWANCE

Person over pensionable age - whether entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension immediately before reaching pensionable age notwithstanding that no claim had been made
R(S) 2/91

*See: Discrimination on grounds of sex
Residence and presence conditions*

SICKNESS BENEFIT

See: Residence and presence conditions

SUPERVISION AND WATCHING OVER

Supervision - claimant falling occasionally - whether requirement for supervision if there is no propensity to fall
R(A) 1/96

Supervision - epilepsy - whether lack of warning implies that danger could not be avoided by supervision
R(A) 4/92

Supervision - schizophrenia - whether the fact that medical advisors have not arranged in-patient care implies that continual supervision is not required
R(A) 2/91

Supervision - schizophrenia - whether the fact that medical advisors have not arranged in-patient care implies that continual supervision is not required - whether it is relevant that supervision could not eliminate all substantial danger
R(A) 3/92

Watching over - couple both with disabilities - whether requirements arising from claimant's need to watch over another to whom attendance allowance is payable are relevant
Miller v. Chief Adjudication Officer
R(A) 4/94

Watching over - whether amended night time supervision test was intended to have retrospective effect on review
R(A) 3/91

SUPPLEMENTARY BENEFIT

Boarder - claimant living in residential care home - whether entitled to benefit to cover services provided by third parties
Pearce v. Chief Adjudication Officer
R(SB) 11/91

Claim for single payment made after repeal of Supplementary Benefits Act 1976 - whether claimant entitled to supplementary benefit
R(SB) 1/94

Conditions of entitlement - exemption from requirement to be available for work - whether age "analogous to" disablement
Knight v. Chief Adjudication Officer
R(SB) 2/94

Conditions of entitlement - exemption from requirement to be available for work - whether age "analogous to" disablement
R(SB) 3/94

*See: Capital
Discrimination on grounds of sex
Income*

TRIBUNALS

Jurisdiction - invalid grant of leave to appeal - whether consent of the parties can confer jurisdiction
R(SB) 1/95

SUBJECT INDEX

- Jurisdiction - setting aside a decision - whether a tribunal is entitled to find a setting aside to have been invalid R(G) 2/93
- Jurisdiction - whether Commissioners and tribunals can determine the validity of a regulation in order to establish whether a decision under appeal was erroneous in law
Foster v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(IS) 22/93
- Jurisdiction - whether Commissioners and tribunals can determine the validity of the decision of a prior tribunal in order to establish whether there is jurisdiction to entertain an appeal R(I) 7/94
- Jurisdiction - withdrawn appeal - whether fresh appeal valid R(IS) 5/94
- Practice - appeal against "any ground" review of a decision refusing to review an earlier decision - whether tribunal required to consider whether there were grounds for review of the earlier decision R(DLA) 1/96
- Practice - appeal in respect of mobility component – whether tribunal obliged to consider existing entitlement to care component R(DLA) 2/97
- Practice - assessment of disablement where more than one cause - whether findings of fact adequate R(I) 2/95
- Practice - claimant asserting that his capacity for work has deteriorated since a review decision terminating an award of invalidity benefit - whether tribunal obliged to consider capacity for work down to the date of their decision R(S) 2/98
- Practice - claim for mobility component of disability living allowance – whether tribunal obliged to consider entitlement to the care component - whether tribunal entitled to rely on ocular observation R(DLA) 1/95
- Practice - conflicting medical reports - whether disability appeal tribunal required to give reasons for preferring one report to the other R(M) 1/93
- Practice - duty to record findings - whether it is permissible to adopt an adjudication officer's statement of findings R(IS) 4/93
- Practice - inquisitorial role - whether duty to ask questions already asked by the Secretary of State - whether duty to adjourn when claimant absent R(IS) 11/99
- Practice - medical assessor – whether able to give evidence R(IB) 4/98
- Practice - natural justice - appeal against assessment of disablement and formal reference of diagnosis question - whether claimant should be warned that tribunal minded to determine diagnosis question adversely to him R(I) 2/91
- Practice - reasons for decision - whether medical appeal tribunal obliged to explain rejection of views of other medical experts
Evans v. Secretary of State for Social Security R(I) 5/94
- Practice - record of proceedings – whether typed chairman's signature is valid R(DLA) 2/98
- Practice - recovery of overpayment - whether findings of fact adequate R(IS) 17/95
- Practice - reliance on specialist knowledge of tribunal member not disclosed to the parties - whether breach of the rules of natural justice R(S) 1/94
- Practice - renewal claim - whether reasons adequate R(M) 1/96

SUBJECT INDEX

Practice - setting aside a decision - whether a decision may be set aside on the ground that "the interests of justice so require" due to a party failing to call sufficient evidence

R(SB) 1/92

See: Child support

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT

Compensation for termination of employment - "ex gratia payment ... in recognition of your time with us" - whether "made ... in respect of the termination of the employment"

R(U) 4/92

Compensation for termination of employment – ineligible period - whether payment made in lieu of notice

R(U) 1/94

Compensation for termination of employment - resettlement grant paid to Church of England clergyman – whether made “in respect of” the termination of “employment” and whether there is a “period of notice applicable to” the incumbent of a parish

R(U) 1/97

Compensation for termination of employment - severance payment calculated entirely by reference to years of service - whether "remuneration paid in respect of the period before termination"

R(U) 5/92

Day of unemployment - calculation of earnings from short-time working - whether a particular week-day had been specified in a written notice given by the Secretary of State for the purpose of claiming unemployment benefit

R(U) 2/93

Day of unemployment - company director – whether engaged in employment and earning over £2 a day

R(U) 1/93

Day of unemployment - councillor's attendance allowance - whether "earnings"

R(U) 2/94

Day of unemployment - disqualification for absence abroad - whether days of absence abroad can be "waiting days"

R(U) 2/91

Dismissal for misconduct - ex gratia payment - whether compensation in respect of termination of employment - effect of dismissal for misconduct on ineligible period

R(U) 1/95

Occupational pension - claimant in receipt of both unemployment benefit and occupational pension before abatement provisions came into force - whether claimant had an "acquired" or "accrued" right to unemployment benefit without abatement

R(U) 1/91

Occupational pension - pension payable on voluntary redundancy - whether an "occupational Pension"

R(U) 3/94

Voluntarily leaving employment - claimant leaving employment at the end of the sixth week - whether leaving "after the end of the sixth week ... of a trial period"

R(U) 1/92

Voluntarily leaving employment - waiver of notice on voluntary redundancy - whether claimant "dismissed ... by reason of redundancy"

R(U) 3/91

Voluntary unemployment - claimant giving notice of resignation but employer requiring her to leave immediately - whether claimant "voluntarily left ... employment without just cause"

R(U) 1/96

See: Claim

Discrimination on grounds of sex

VALIDITY OF MARRIAGE

- Domicile - person moving to United Kingdom indefinitely - whether domiciled in United Kingdom at the time of a polygamous marriage R(G) 1/95
- Domicile – whether claimant domiciled in United Kingdom at the time of a polygamous marriage – whether marriage recognised R(S) 2/92
- Domicile - polygamous marriage contracted in Bangladesh – whether domicile of choice in England had been abandoned so that domicile of origin in Bangladesh was revived and the marriage was valid R(G) 1/93
- Domicile - polygamous marriage contracted without the consent of the first wife - whether deceased domiciled in England R(G) 4/93
- Marriage ceremony not carried out in accordance with the statutory requirements – whether presumption of marriage from long cohabitation
Chief Adjudication Officer v. Bath R(G) 1/00
- Panchayat divorce in India - whether marriage terminated R(P) 1/98
- Recognition of foreign divorce – Bangladesh Muslim Family Laws Ordinance 1961 – whether question of foreign law a question of fact R(G) 2/00
- Talaq pronounced in United Kingdom - whether marriage terminated R(G) 1/94

VIRTUAL INABILITY TO WALK

- Claimant becoming exhausted on physical exertion – whether exertion “likely to lead to a serious deterioration in his health” R(M) 1/98
- Claimant refusing to undergo an operation - whether likely effect of operation to be taken into account R(M) 1/95
- Meaning of “severe discomfort” and its relationship to “pain” R(DLA) 4/98
- Persons suffering from porphyria causing skin to blister when exposed to daylight - whether virtually unable to walk
Hewitt v Chief Adjudication Officer R(DLA) 6/99
- “Severe discomfort” – whether same as “severe pain or distress”
Cassinelli v. Secretary of State for Social Security R(M) 2/92
- Whether claimant's difficulty in negotiating inclines was relevant R(M) 1/91

WIDOW'S BENEFIT

- Widowed mother’s allowance – whether first wife in polygamous marriage was entitled if the marriage was not monogamous at the time of the husband’s death
Bibi v. Chief Adjudication Officer R(G) 1/97
- Widowed mother's allowance - widow pregnant at date of husband's death – whether evidence rebutted the presumption of legitimacy R(G) 1/92

*See: Forfeiture
Validity of marriage*

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION (SUPPLEMENTATION) SCHEME 1982

- Lesser incapacity allowance - no payments of workmen’s compensation and no admission of

SUBJECT INDEX

liability by employer – whether claimant “may be expected to be entitled” to workmen’s
compensation R(I) 4/97